A small collection of papers of Dr Andrew A L Drummond (1902-66), minister of Eadie Church, Alva, 1932-66, and ecclesiastical historian, almost all relating to his books, The Story of American Protestantism (Edinburgh, 1949) and German Protestantism Since Luther (London, 1951).

1. A copy of the Story of American Protestantism, Oliver and Boyd, 1949, with annotations by the author, some possibly for the American edition by the Beacon Press, Boston, 1950/1.
2. Some letters, papers, cuttings etc, 1949-64, originally tipped into American Protestantism and relating to its publications in Scotland and the USA or, more generally, to American church history and current affairs.
3. Proof copy of German Protestantism Since Luther, Epworth Press, London, 1951.
4.
  - (i) Letters (6), 1949-51, mostly from the Epworth Press.
  - (ii) Corrections to text of German Protestantism submitted by Dr Richard G Salomen, Kenyon College, Ohio.
  - (iii) Miscellaneous notes and cuttings.
5.
  - (i) Photograph of Sir Patrick Geddes's Collège des Ecosais in Montpellier, n.d., and a cutting with an obituary of Geddes, 1932. (Dr Drummond was a student at Montpellier in 1927).
  - (ii) Postcard, ca. 1930, of the tomb of Amenhotep III at Thebes.
  - (iii) Cutting relating to St Serf's Church, Alva, and an article by Rev John Ogilvie, Cumbernauld, on 'The Clergy in the "Waverley Novels"'.
