

Inventory

Acc.11789

Brora Coal Mine, Sutherland

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Minute book of the Brora Branch of the National Union of Mineworkers, Scottish Area, 1954-61, and photocopies of cuttings and other documents relating to the Ross Colliery, Brora, the most northerly deep coal mine in the British Isles.

1. Minute book, Brora Branch, NUMS, 1954-61.
2. Photocopies of eleven share certificates in the Ross Pit, 1962-7, issued to Joe Bokas.
3. Photocopies of cuttings from The Northern Times, 1973, relating to the imminent closure of the pit: and from The Press and Journal, 1 October 1988, on the same subject.

Item 1 presented by, and 2-3 copied with the permission of Joe Bokas Esq., Brora, Sutherland (through the good offices of Ian MacDougall, Secretary, Scottish Working Peoples' History Trust).