Correspondence and papers, c.1930-1989, of Dr Robert Douglas McIntyre (1913-1998), physician and leader of the Scottish National Party (S.N.P.). Dr McIntyre was S.N.P. MP for Motherwell and Wishaw (1945), Chairman of the SNP (1948-1956) and President (1958-1980). He contested Motherwell, Perth and East Perthshire, West Stirlingshire, Stirling, Falkirk and Grangemouth, and Mid-Scotland and Fife [European Parliament election] for the SNP between 1950 and 1979. He was Provost of Stirling (1967-1975) and a consultant chest physician in Stirling and Clackmannan (1951-1979).

The collection contains some papers of his father, the Rev. John Ebenezer McIntyre (1874-1961), successively minister of Hightae and Dalton, Motherwell, Manse Road, and St Mary's, Edinburgh, United Free churches, and later of Barony and St James Place Church of Scotland, Edinburgh (file 32 below).
