

Inventory

Acc.3679

Papers of Major-General Sir John H Davidson

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

A slim file consisting of the following:

1. Photostat of article on 1917 French mutinies in Blackwood's Magazine, January 1944.
2. Memorial article on Haig by Davidson in the Contemporary Review, March 1928. (two copies).
3. Map showing allied gains 8 Aug – 11 Nov 1918 with typescript notes.
4. Pamphlet: The "Total" War by General Ludendorff.
5. Speech delivered by Sir Archibald Sinclair, Bart., of Ulbster, ... in memory of Haig 28 Jun 1950. (two copies).
6. Statement of sales of book Haig Master of the Field.
7. Two maps showing German concentrations at 21 March [?1918] as planned, and in fact.
8. Map showing allied withdrawals, 9-30 April 1918.
9. Map showing allied advances, 8 Aug – 11 Nov 1918.
10. Review of two books on Haig being a periodical for Jun 1953, pp.567-70.
11. Reviews of Davidson's book on Haig (six press-cuttings).
12. Letter, n.d., of 2nd Earl Haig to Davidson.
13. Excerpts of letters to Davidson about his book on Haig.
14. Three copies in typescript carbon of Davidson's entry for Who's Who.
15. Extract of letter of Haig to Davidson, 4 Mar 1927.
16. Photograph of Haig (2 copies).
17. Printed notice of Davidson's book on Haig.