

Inventory

Acc.6469

Annie S Swan

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Printed items and photographs of and concerning the novelist and playwright, Annie S Swan (1859-1943). As some of the items are dated later than 1943 they evidently did not all belong to Annie S Swan, but have been left in the collection.

Presented, 1975.

See also Acc.6003.

1. Holy Bible (Oxford, n.d.).
2. The Book of Common Prayer (Oxford, n.d.)
3. The Psalms of David (Oxford, n.d.)
4. Theatre and concert programmes, mainly London and Edinburgh, 1935-42, n.d. Also the script and programme for The Satire of the Three Estates, produced during the Edinburgh Festival of 1948.
5. Orders of service, 1935-39, for various memorial, anniversary and dedication services.
6. Exhibition catalogues, 1935, 1938, 1945. Includes the catalogue of the Palace of Arts, the fine art section of the Empire Exhibition Scotland, 1938.
7. Programmes, 1936, 1948, n.d., for various sporting events.
8. Publications.
Food from the garden (London: HMSO, 1939)
Shetland knitting by Jessie M E Saxby (Lerwick, n.d.)
How to be a clever cook ... by the College of Modern Housekeeping (Edinburgh, n.d.).
The Sunday Magazine, 1894 ('A Lost Ideal' by Annie S Swan, pp.1-14).
9. Miscellaneous.
Musicians' Club dinner menu, 1937.
Clyde Coast train and steamer services timetable, 1938-9.
Tariff and advertisement for The Crook Inn, Peeblesshire.
Press cutting from The News, 3 July 1943: 'Fife memories of Annie S Swan' by Russell Paton.
Letter, 1942, of the Earl of Rosebery to Miss V Rule concerning a social engagement.

10. Three photographs. One possibly of Annie S Swan; an aerial photograph, possibly of Gullane; a postcard of 'Pettycur and Inchkeith from the golf course' [?Kinghorn, Fife].