

Inventory of Manuscripts

Acc.6483

Scotland in Europe

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

©National Library of Scotland

A series of talks recorded by BBC (for Radio 4 Scotland) in 1974, examining the relationship of Scotland to the European Community and its prospects after a year's experience of British membership.

Presented, 1975.

1. Industry: Ross Belch, Managing Director, Scott Lithgow Ltd.
2. Tourism and the Environment: Sir Robert Grieve, Professor of Town and Regional Planning, Glasgow University.
3. Commerce: Norman Hunt, Professor of Business Studies, Edinburgh University.
4. The Arts: Aubrey Halford-MacLeod.
5. Social and political Institutions: John Mitchell, Salvesen, Professor of European Institutions, Edinburgh University.
6. Agriculture: George Houston, Professor of agricultural Economics, Glasgow University.
7. Scotland's Place in Europe: George Thomson, European Commissioner.
8. Transcripts of recordings.