

Acc.8449

William Holms

1. Correspondence of William Holms and of J Douglas Holms 1844-1924, n.d. including letters from the Prince of Wales (later Edward VII) and others pertaining to the Paris Exhibition 1878 and letters from W E Gladstone and others on his retiral from Parliament, 1884.
2. Political speeches of William Holms and newspaper articles 1880-1903.
3. Share book, 1865-70.
4. Accounts and receipts pertaining to William Holms and his estate 1888-1923, n.d.
5. William Holms, Notes for his Trustees, 1902.
6. Reading notes, n.d.
7. Certificates, contracts and diplomas 1819-1916 including diploma and cross presented by the French Government, 1872.
8. Miscellaneous printed items 1853-1901 including a plan of the ground and distribution of the brigades and battalions at the Queen's review of volunteers in the Queens Park Edinburgh 7 August 1860 and plan of the Prussian houses of parliament, 1863.
9. Miscellaneous cards, photographs, invitations 1853-92 including photograph 1872 showing an unknown elderly gentleman taken at Stuart Studios, Glasgow and two copies of a photograph showing a young lady, taken at Naudin and Co Studios, London n.d.
10. Bank of Scotland current account passbook, William Holms, 1899-01.
11. Bank of Scotland current account passbook, William Holms, 1901-3.
12. Bank of Scotland current account passbook, J. Douglas Holms, 1903-4.
13. Bank of Scotland current account passbook, J. Douglas Holms, 1903-7.
14. Bank of Scotland current account passbook, Percy Granville Holms, 1902-6.
15. Bank of Scotland current account passbook, Percy Granville Holms, 1906-10.
16. Last eyeglass used by William Holms and a tin of sealing wax.
17. Manuscripts and typescripts of play, 'Bothwell' and poetry by J. Douglas Holms, 1897-8, n.d.
18. Legends of Many Lands by J Douglas Holms (unbound) with signed agreement of publication, 1902.
19. Manuscript of play "Aunt Maria" by J Douglas Holms with letter of rejection, 1901.
20. Day book, 1903.
21. Photograph depicting lady taken at Lafayette's Studio, n.d.
22. Diplomas from city of Glasgow to the family of the late John Buchanan, 1910.