Letters, 1986-95, of Tom Scott (1918-1995) and George MacLeod of Fuinary (1895-1991) to the portrait painter, Joyce Gunn-Cairns (b. 1948). Some of her portraits of Tom Scott are in the collections of the Scottish National Portrait Gallery, and the Scottish Poetry Library; some of her drawings of George MacLeod of Fuinary are also in the Scottish National Portrait Gallery.

Bought, 2002.

1. Twenty-five letters, 1986-95, of Tom Scott to Joyce Gunn-Cairns, with manuscript notes, 1986, of an interview with him concerning Joan Eardley, a corrected typescript, n.d., of part of a poem of Tom Scott, a copy of a letter, 1987, of Dr M. Ross, of Newbattle Abbey College, a printed order of service for the funeral of Tom Scott, and a letter of condolence of Mary MacLeod.
2. Two letters, [1990], of George MacLeod of Fuinary to Joyce Gunn-Cairns, with a letter, 1990, of his daughter, Mary, a printed programme, 1991, for the occasion of the presentation of the freedom of the City of Glasgow, and orders of service for his funeral and a memorial service, 1991, with related letters, 1991, of John Harvey, Leader of the Iona Community.
