

Acc.12779
May 2007

Inventory

Acc.12779

Material relating to the history of St Andrews Church, Madras, 1816-1970s, compiled by Professor Lionel Caplan

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Presented by Professor Lionel Caplan, 2007

Extent: 0.025m

[Please note that related material is in the Archives of the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London (Lionel Caplan Papers, Indian Christians, Reference Code PP MS 77/1). See also Lionel Caplan, Class and Culture in Urban India: Fundamentalism in a Christian Community, Oxford: Clarendon Press, 1987.]

1. Copies of 2 letters, 1817, concerning the establishment of St Andrews Church in Madras. Typescript.
2. List of Chaplains and Ministers. Typescript.
3. List of Elders 1887-1961, 1961-73. Typescript.
4. An Account of St Andrews Church, Madras, 16pp. Typescript.
5. Copy of 'History of Church of Scotland Madras', c.1880. 44pp. Typescript.
6. Notes on Kirk Session Minutes 1815-1863, 1841-1961, 1950-1961. c. 47pp in three groups of typescript.
7. Notes on Kirk Session Records. 26pp. Typescript.
8. Excerpts from Parish Magazine 1887-1945. 27pp. Typescript.
9. Extracts from the Supplement of Life and Work, 1887-1900. 5pp. Typescript.
10. Notes on inscriptions on some early gravestones in the churchyard. Handwritten.
11. Notes on some plaques in the church. Handwritten.
12. Notes for a talk on 'The Early Years' to church members by Lionel Caplan, October 1974. Handwritten.
13. Miscellaneous notes and extracts relating to the history of St Andrews, church architecture, the proposed 'merger' with the Church of South India, the post-Independence congregation, etc. Typescript and handwritten.