

Inventory

Acc.4334

James Clunie

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Correspondence and papers of James Clunie (1889-1974), MP for Dunfermline, (1950-9), concerned largely with his association with John Maclean; the papers, 1908-62, have been arranged as follows:

Presented, 1967, by James Clunie, Esq, Balcurvie, Windygates, Fife.

1. Letters of John Maclean to James Clunie, 1921-3.
2. Notes on the Maclean letters by James Clunie, n.d.
3. Outline notes [printed] for the lectures of John Maclean on economics.
4. Printed copy, Theses and Statutes of the III Communist International adopted by the II Congress, Moscow, 1920.
5. Miscellaneous correspondence and papers of James Clunie, 1908-62.