Prints from original photographs, ca. 1920, of political events in Soviet Russia. Many feature Grigori Evseyevich Zinoviev (1883-1936), and the Hungarian communist leader Bela Kun (1886-1936); with a translation of the Russian comments on the verso of the original photographs.

13 photographs numbered 1-14 [2 and 5 are identical in original], + vi ff.

Made, 1972 with the permission of Mrs June Wall, Glasgow, daughter of the late Walter Bell, the first owner of the originals, and through the good offices of Ian MacDougall Esq., Secretary, Scottish Labour History Society.
