

Acc.5582
February 2008

Inventory

Acc.5582

Peter Cunningham

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Peter Cunningham was born at Pimlico in 1816, the third son of Allan Cunningham. He was educated at Christ's Hospital, London and in 1834 obtained a position in the audit office, from which he retired in 1860. He published many works including Handbook of Westminster Abbey, 1842; Handbook of London, 1849; Story of Nell Gwyn, 1852. He also contributed to various periodicals including the Illustrated London News and Gentleman's Magazine. Cunningham died in 1869.

Printed books with corrections insertions by Peter Cunningham.

1. The Songs of England and Scotland selected by Peter Cunningham, Vol.I, Lond., 1835
2. The Story of Nell Gwyn by Peter Cunningham, Lond., 1852
3. The Works of Robert Burns by Allan Cunningham, Lond., 1834