

Inventory

Acc.8959

Sir H Lindesay Bethune

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Correspondence and papers of Major-General Sir Henry Lindesay Bethune of Kilconquhar (de jure 9th Earl of Lindsay).

1. Correspondence, 1812-35.
2. Correspondence, 1836-51, n.d., with a few letters and papers concerning him, 1851-2.
3. Commissions and other formal documents, 1812-49.
4. Bills and accounts, 1814-39, n.d.
5. Notebook containing poem 'The Seven Labours of Roostum, the Persian Hercules', n.d.
6. Accounts of the career of Sir H L Bethune addressed to his son, written in an unidentified formal hand on paper watermarked 1834.
7. Notebook containing copies and extracts of private letters and public documents concerning Sir H L Bethune, 1834-5.
8. Notebook containing memoranda and accounts, 1850-1.
9. Firmans and other Oriental papers, including some translations, 1835-8, n.d.
10. Letters, 1834-8, of Bethune to his wife.
11. Correspondence of Lady Bethune, 1835-8 and of her mother Mrs John Trotter of Dyrham (née Felicity Jean Swinton), 1835-43.

A copy of the Fifeshire Journal 29 May 1851 containing an obituary of Bethune has been transferred to the General Collections.