Carlyle Family Letters of Uncertain Date

Fragment, probably by Mrs J A Carlyle of Arbroath.

Fragment, and Dr J A Carlyle's visiting card and visiting cards of "Dr Carlyle" and two of "Mrs J A Carlyle", ie Phoebe Carlyle, b. Watts, who died in 1854, so therefore of about that date.

Sir John Richardson of Lancrigg, Grasmere, (1787-1865) to Dr J A Carlyle (?), after his retirement there in 1855. [1855-1865].

James Carlyle (TC's brother) to another Jamie in the family. Addressee and date uncertain.

Mrs Mary Gordon, da. of Professor John Wilson, to John A Carlyle at 62 Hanover St, enclosing quotations from Italian poetry on paper that has watermark 186[], otherwise uncertain date, and envelope.

Envelope, Dr Carlyle, with pencil note "Miss Stirling Graham (upwds. of 80)"; two letters from her to John A Carlyle, one date Wednesday and one 28 February. The latter has a watermark of 1862.

Anna Arbuckle (presumably wife of late Dr Robert? Arbuckle) to

John A Carlyle	heavy mourning	16 October
	lighter mourning	6 January

-- with a label Dr Carlyle / care of Dr Arbuckle / Auchenhay / Twynholm b / Dumfries.

Letters of E Clare, Countess Clare, to John A Carlyle.

[Carlyle reports late in 1838 (Collected Letters 10:219) that John is engaged as physician in the family of the Duke of Buccleuch: Lady Clare is in London, very ill, and John has seen her and recommended that she move immediately to the Isle of Wight (with her companion Miss Elliot, presumably) for the winter of 1838-9].

E Clare	John A Carlyle	Ryde, Thursday
---------	----------------	----------------

[invites JAC to Stewart's Hotel to see her: ?early November 1838].

E Clare	John A Carlyle	15 November [1838]
---------	----------------	--------------------

[Lady Clare at Stewart's Hotel: would be glad of John's services].

E Clare	John A Carlyle	28 February [1839]
---------	----------------	--------------------

[from Ryde: hopes to see JAC shortly].

E Clare	John A Carlyle	20 April [1839]
---------	----------------	-----------------

[from Ryde: has been visited by JAC]

E Clare	John A Carlyle	24 July [1839]

[still from Ryde: hopes to leave for Rome on 24 August and, inferentially, to JAC there. JAC undecided about his future plans].

Also letter of

Charlotte Elliot	John A Carlyle	"Friday 30 March" [?1839]
------------------	----------------	---------------------------

Reporting improvement in EC's health in Isle of Wight; they are thinking of moving but staying till at least April.

Letters from European correspondents to Dr John A Carlyle dated after 1827 when (already 'Dr') he began to tour Europe, and conjecturally late 1830s.
