

Inventory

Acc.9851

Angus Calder

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Correspondence and papers of Dr Angus Calder, historian, critic and writer, 1960-88. They have been arranged in groups: Calder's thesis and books and broadcasts deriving from it, with other broadcasts (1-24); his period as lecturer at the University of Nairobi and later visits to East Africa, with papers on East African literature (25-52); his editorship of the Journal of Commonwealth Literature (53-6); his convenorship of the Scottish Poetry Library (57-62); and miscellaneous papers and printed items (63-6).

1. Drafts of and correspondence concerning Calder's doctoral thesis at the University of Cambridge, 'Common Wealth', concerning the political party of that name active during World War II, 1964-7.
2. Typescript of The People's War (Lond, 1969), part 1.
3. Typescript of The People's War (Lond, 1969), part 2.
4. Various papers concerning The People's War.
5. Correspondence and papers concerning and drafts of the Jackdaw publication, Britain at War (Lond, 1973), 1966-72.
6. Correspondence and papers concerning 'Home Fires', a Thames TV programme, 1972-4.
7. Correspondence concerning and scripts of an anthology and TV series from Mass Observation files (published as Speak for Yourself, Lond, 1984), 1981-5.
8. Correspondence with publishers, literary agents, etc, 1964-71.
9. Correspondence with members of the public, 1969-77.
10. Papers and correspondence concerning a conference on 'Byron and Scotland', 1987-8.
11. Typescript of Byron (Milton Keynes, 1987).
12. Correspondence concerning the BBC radio series 'World Makers', 1982-6.
13. Scripts for 'World Makers'.
14. Notes for 'World Makers'.
15. Notes for the 'Hunters and Gatherers' part of 'World Makers'.

16. Notes for the 'Women with Hoes' part of 'World Makers'.
17. Notes for the 'Travelling Salesmen' part of 'World Makers'.
18. Notes for the 'My name is Ozymandias' part of 'World Makers'.
19. Final script for 'World Makers'.
20. Material for parts, 8, 9, 10 of 'World Makers'.
21. Transcripts of taped interviews for 'World Makers'.
22. Tapes of interviews and scripts for 'World Makers' (32).
23. Tapes of interviews and scripts for 'World Makers' (12).
24. Scripts for various broadcasts.
25. Correspondence while Calder was working in the Department of English at Nairobi, 1969 – June 1971.
26. Correspondence on Kenya and East African literature, July, 1971-1977, n.d.
27. Letters to Mrs E Adams and K Richards, 1968-71.
28. Papers concerning the Department of English, 1968-70.
29. Lecture notes used in the Department of English, on Milton, Spenser, the metaphysicals, and Dekker.
30. Lecture notes used in the Department of English, on the 18th-century novel (Smollett, Sterne, Scott, Austen).
31. Lecture notes used in the Department of English, on Conrad, Golding, and Falkner.
32. Lecture notes used in the Department of English, on Greene and Fry.
33. Lecture notes used in the Department of English, for the first year.
34. Lecture notes used in the Department of English, for the first year novel and drama.

35. Papers on the syllabus of the Department of English.
36. Papers on the syllabus of the Department of English.
37. Book-lists for the Department of English.
38. Papers concerning the Writers' Workshop in Nairobi, 1968-70 (including an incomplete run of its production 'Currents').
39. Proofs of Writers in East Africa, ed A Gurr and A Calder, Nairobi, 1974; papers on East African literature.
40. Correspondence on the editorship of Writers in East Africa.
41. Minutes of the 'Busara' committee, 1968-70, and correspondence on the East Africa Literature Bureau, 1970-1.
42. Correspondence and papers on Writers in East Africa, 1969; criticisms of individual pieces of East African literature.
43. 'Miscellaneous East African creative Writing'.
44. Curriculum vitae and writings of Peter Nazareth.
45. Correspondence and papers on the writers' workshop in Kampala, 1970.
46. Correspondence and papers on a British Council visit to Kenya and Mauritius, 1975.
47. Papers of the writers' workshop in Mauritius.
48. Correspondence and papers of a visit to Malawi, 1978, with writers' workshop.
49. Papers for an African poetry anthology (published as Summer Fires, Lond, 1983), 1981.
50. Papers concerning visits to Uganda as external examiner in English, 1983-5.
51. Papers on political detention in Kenya, especially that of Ngugi wa Thiong'o, 1978-85.
52. Notes for an Open University course on Ngugi wa Thiong'o.

53. Correspondence as editor of the Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1978-82.
54. Correspondence as editor of the Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1983-4.
55. Correspondence as editor of the Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1985-8.
56. Notes, proofs, etc relating to the Journal of Commonwealth Literature.
57. Correspondence and papers concerning the Scottish Poetry Library, 1982-3.
58. Correspondence and papers concerning the Scottish Poetry Library, 1984.
59. Correspondence and papers concerning the Scottish Poetry Library, 1985.
60. Correspondence and papers concerning the Scottish Poetry Library, 1986.
61. Correspondence and papers concerning the Scottish Poetry Library, 1987-8, n.d.
62. Miscellaneous papers concerning the Scottish Poetry Library.
63. Miscellaneous personal papers.
64. Papers on conferences, newsletters, and publications.
65. Ephemera.
66. Printed items: newspapers, periodicals and pamphlets, arranged in alphabetically by title.