

From shore to shore activity 3

Imaginative writing

Learning intention: to be able to create a text using a stimulus/to be able to create interesting description.

What will we do?

We will use the images you have viewed on the site to inspire an imaginative piece of writing. You will use a variety of writing techniques to help make your writing interesting and effective. You can choose from the following options:

1. A diary entry written from the perspective of one of the people in the image.
2. A story opening using the place in the image as your setting.
3. A dramatic script which brings the events of the image to life, including dialogue and stage directions.
